

Hudson River Whitewater Rafting Options

Cloudsplitter offers private customized trips tailored to meet your needs. From scenic rides with an experienced oarsman where you sit in a relatively dry location and benefit from a historical interpretation of the logging era and rafting history. Or, choose an exciting paddle raft trip that takes on the biggest waves and surfs as many holes as safely possible. Or, choose our learn-to-row program where you manage a raft, cat, or drift boat yourself. Have it your way!

The Hudson River Gorge

A dam release makes it possible to paddle the scenic Hudson River Gorge from early April through Columbus Day weekend. Release days are Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday, and Sunday. Show up is 8AM and we are back in Newcomb no later than 4:30. The cost is $575.00 for 1-6 guest, add a 7th person for an additional $95.00. This is a bring-your-own-lunch price, cooler space will be provided.

Newcomb to North River

When the natural flow cooperates you can book a trip from Newcomb to North River. The 12 mile section of river from Newcomb to the Indian River is remote, rarely will you see another person. The next 14 miles to North River is the commercial rafting section through the wild and scenic Hudson River Gorge. On a release day we will encounter others enjoying this part of the Hudson. We launch from Cloudsplitter around 8 AM and are back to Newcomb around 4:30. This Day trip is limited to 6 Guest. The cost is $575.00 for 1- 6 guest. Bring your own lunch, coolers will be provided.
